welcome to our world

Growth. Progress. Change. Expansion.

In 1946, William Russell Kelly opened Kelly Services® from a small office with two employees.

Today, Kelly Services has emerged as the most trusted and respected name in workforce management solutions, delivering proven solutions in professional and technical staffing, outsourcing, and consulting to businesses of all sizes, in any geographic location of Europe.

So if you're looking for that perfect world with one business partner that meets your workforce management needs—we do that.

Outsourcing & Consulting

Recruitment Process Outsourcing :: We are a global leader in enterprise-wide recruiting, placement, and retention solutions, providing efficient sourcing of top-quality talent across all disciplines, job levels, and geographies.

Business Process Outsourcing :: We take on full operational management of non-core business activities including payroll services, distribution centre/warehouse logistics, administrative support services, production operations, and contact centres.

Contingent Workforce Outsourcing :: By integrating suppliers and vendor management technology, we'll help you optimize your contingent labour spend. Our independent contractor solutions include comprehensive evaluation, classification, risk mitigation, and ongoing administration.

Human Resources Consulting :: Our expertise in workforce planning, global mobility, market labour research, and everything in between will help you improve business performance.

Career Transition & Organizational Effectiveness :: We help with downsizing and related organizational issues, including reduction in workforce planning, termination training for managers, onsite support at time of termination, group and individual programs, and follow-up support.

Professional & Technical Staffing

Engineering :: We serve a wide range of industries, providing engineers, designers, drafters, project support, engineering managers, project managers, technicians, and supply chain specialists.

Finance :: From experienced support-level professionals to senior-level finance and account management, our accounting and finance professionals get the job done efficiently and cost-effectively.

IT :: Our IT professionals are experts in everything across the software development and infrastructure spectrums—whether you need technicians, network designers, systems analysts, or database administrators.

Science :: Our access to unique scientific professionals through our active involvement in the scientific community has made us the world's largest provider of scientific and clinical research workforce solutions today.
